NEW YORK, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1892.

Cororlo.

WHEN GROVER GETS BACK.

I Want That $500.00.

I estimate that the average number of copies of The World printed per day during 1892 will be found to have been

DECEMBER 3 .- Address The World, Box 2,354, N. Y.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Jay Gould's Funeral to Be at His House Next

Monday.

BURIAL TUESDAY AT WOODLAWN

Official Action of Western Union

and Manhattan "L"

Directors.

MISS HELEN GOULD IS NOT ILL.

Monday at 4 o'clock r. M.

THE DEAD after the funeral,

The Services at the Tomb.

(From photo by Falk.)
At the funeral Monday afternoon, the rela-

Probable Successors to Mr eventh street side.
The front doors of the mansion will be Gould in the Management of His Great Properties.

thrown open to the public, but it has not yet peen decided whether the public shall be per mitted to view the features of the dead man.

The arrangements for the funeral of Jay The report in a morning paper that Hiss Gould are thus announced to-day: Services Helen Gould was prostrated and seriously ill will be held at the house, 570 Fifth avenue, on account of her father's death was denied at the house this morning.

The ceremonies will be in charge of ex-Judge John F. Dillon, one of Mr. Gould's slight cold, and the fact that that was her closest friends, and Dr. Munn, the long-time only aliment was corroborated by an old genphysician and intimate associate of Mr. tleman who came out of the house shortly before 10 o'clock.

THE CASTLE AT LYNDHURST.

Rev. Dr. John R. Paxton, of the West Presbyterian Church ; Rev. Dr. MacCracken, Chan-York, and Rev. Dr. Roderick Terry, of the seriously ill. South Reformed Church, will conduct the burial service of the Protestant Episcopai neous prayers.

c will be rendered by a quartet from lead, Kindly Light," and the hymn, mittee. Nearer, My God, to Thee."

clergymen. Mr. Gould's body will this afternoon be in the corner of the house at Forty-seventh treet and Fifth avenue.

features of the dead financier. Tuesday morning the body will be taken to Woodlawn Cemetery and placed in the family vault beside that of his wife, whose death never ceased to mourn. H. Q. French, the architect who designed and built the mausoleum, is to-day at the cemetery in Woodlawn, making arrange ments for the interment. Mr. George J. Gould, who, with Dr. Munn received all callers at the house this morning. refused to make public any of the telegrams and letters of condolence received by the fam lly, and of which there is said to be a great Callers at the House.

A host of callers wen led their way up the morning.

They came early, and while many the Board of Directors. of them had been more or less in- In the other companies in which Mr. Gould unate with the dead magnate, many was interested, he had aiready retired from lives at Camden, N. J., and Mrs. Palen, who more merely called to inquire concerning the active duty, giving way to his sons.

that a guard shall be placed over the temb second Vice-President of the St. Louis and do not know whether the others have chil-Gould when she died.

Up to noon the body had not yet been emleath to discuss the details of the prepara- southwestern. bood that this method of preserving the body tional and Great Northern, and is a member provided liberally for all his relatives in his declared that he was an illegittmate son of tions for burial, it is said there is little likeliwill be adopted.

Undertaker Main said this morning that the Hallway. cashet selected by the family was of plain one, covered with black broadclots and with ondized silver handles.

bear this inscription :

JAY GOULD. BORN MAY 27, 1836.

Din > Dronmoun 2, 1802 Just who will be present at the funeral trice could not be learned this morning.

but it is said on good authority that none but disposition, and ouride of himself and

All the locomotives on the Elevated rail- of his willroad lines in the city were draped with black friends will follow the body to Woodlawn Tuesday in carriages, not more than ten in True of Vanderpoel, Green & Cuming, but of late years ex_Judge John Fr. Dillen has transacted all his priVare business, as well as attended to the

The North German Linyal accounting spaces, in The North German Linyal accounting spaces, in the North German Linyal accounting spaces. riends will follow the body to Woodlawn quired, acted accordingly, ives and the immediate friends of the family will be admitted by invitation cards. They adjoining his father's mansion on the Forty-

Miss Helen Gould Not Ill.

It is known that the young woman has a

"Miss Helen," he said to a group of reporters, "is up and doing nicely. There is no cellor of the University of the City of New truth whatever in the report that she is Official Action on Gould's Beath.

Meetings were held downtown to-day by the directors of several of the companies in which he was possessed at the time of his who has his office there, was not in when a Market Police Court this morning with hav-The clergymen, in addition to the ritual of which Mr. Gould was largely interested to death. the Episcopal service, will offer extempora- take appropriate action in regard to his 000,000. death.

The Executive Committee of the Western the choir of Rev. Dr. Paxton's church, com- Union Board of Directors met in President Norvin Green's private office at noon Mmc. Clementing De Vere Sappio, Mrs. Carl | and resolutions of regret and condolence were Alves, Erickson S. Bushnell and Payne Clark. | adopted, and glowing tributes were paid to

A similar meeting of the Board of Railway Company was held at 15.30 r. M., at the offices at 71 Broadway, and s

The death of Mr. Gould leaves vacant the Presidency of the Manhattan Elevated Rau-

THE SCHOOL-HOUSE WHERE JAT GOULD WAS

It is expected that George J. Gould will take his father's place in all these companies. In the Western Union Company, of which big brown steps of the house of death this George Gould is already the Vice-President, Mr. Gould's death causes a vacancy only in for a time as was done in the case of Mrs. Iron Mountain, First Vice-President of the dren or not, but I know that Mr. Gould has tan, the Missouri Pacific and the Western balmed, and although Undertaker Main is Union, and is President of the St. Louis Howard Gould is a Director of the Internaof one of the committees of the Manhattan How Will His Wealth Be Divided?

The death of the great financier and the probable distribution of his enormous The plate will be of weld cliver, and will wealth, formed the absorbing topic of conwealth, formed the absorbing topic of con-eine system in St. Louis, is in many respects versation in Wall street, and in downtown a contrast to the great financier. He has the business circles this morning. Very little definite in ormation, however, can be obtained upon the latter sub- and heavy tentured. He has the reputation clear that the public will have to restrain its curiosity upon ally generous, is very popular with his assecting point until the will of Mr. Gould is clates in the railroad service and with the offered for probate. Mr. Gould was always of a secretive the immediate members of the family will his private counsel there is probably no one who knows anything of the contents

That such a document was drawn up sevand white streamers in honor of Mr. Gould, eral years ago there is no doubt.

the President of the corporation. These Many say that Mr. Gould drew it himself. draperies, will remain on the motors until and that even his own lawyer does not know all of its provisions.

He asked legal advice on certain provisions Members of Mr. Gould's family and a few, and having obtained the information re- She Broke Her Shaft and Had to was interested. sonal knowledge that there was a very carefully drawn will, but declined to make public broken.

any of its details. There May Be a Great Trust. Among Mr. Gould's intimate personal friends, however, the belief was general gers aboard the oversite Spree visited the that the greater part of his estate had officers of the Company in Bowling Green prise the bulk of his estate.

It is known, also, that during the past few It is known, also, that during the past few ing that the Spree was reported in tow of a gritish beas been investing a fortune in other British vessel off Kinsale Head, Ireland. gilt-edged securities, which can also be proected in the same way by trusteeships. His aim was to keep his properties anxiety.

PICTURE GALLERY AT INVINGTON.

sons, who have been brought up under the di-rect guidance of their father and thoroughly Winnipeg, Man.; R. T. Taylor, of Cincininstructed in all the details of the manageof the ideas of their father with respect to

The Spree is a beautifully proportioned, powerfully constructed vessel and was only launched in May, 1800. She was built by the Vulcan Iron Company at Secting Germany. The engines are triple-expansion, 13,000 horse-power, and she shrewdness in several deals, from which be shrewdness in several deals, from which be has profited largely. Although both of the boys have speculated in Wall Street, it is add that neither of them has shown the daring spirit of their father in this direction, and whenever they have gone into the market.

The spree is a beautifully proportioned, powerfully constructed vessel and was only launched in May, 1800. She was built by the Vulcan Iron Company at Secting Germany. The engines are triple-expansion, 13,000 horse-power, and she makes about fineteen knots an hour in ordinary weather.

The agent leit every confidence in her saworthiness and in her power to withstand amost any accident likely to occur.

They contended from the beginning that a bout four years ago, engaging in newspaper work, afterwards going to Olympia, where he tought the Olimpian.

The spree is a beautifully proportioned, him home in a hack. Thirty minutes later in the host im home in a hack. Thirty minutes later in the him home in a hack. Thirty minutes later in the most of the interpolation of the shoot him.

Boyd was the son of Col. A. P. Boyd, of Philadelphia, at one time time to the Pennsylvania Railroad. Boyd, who was thirty-lave years of age, came to Tacoma the pennsylvania Railroad. Boyd, who was the son of Col. A. P. Boyd, of Philadelphia, at one time him home in a hack. Thirty minutes later in the office of the mach. The provided was the tended o and whenever they have gone into the market it has always been on a conservative basis They have been given credit for many risky speculative deals in which they were really never engaged.

Prebably Left $100,000,000. Estimates of Jay Gould's fortune range all the way from $50,000,000 to $150,000,000.

ENTRANCE HALL AT INVINGTON. According to the majority of the estimates his "known holdings" are said to be in the neighborhood of $80,000 000, of which $20. 000,000 is in Western Union stock, $13,000,-000 in Manhattan Elevated and $15,000,000 in Missouri Pacific stock and bonds. His interest in Wabash, Union Pacific and the bonds of other ratiroad and steamship corporations in which he was a prominent figure, beside Government securities, is entirely unknown, and may be put anywhere from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000. Even the will a not expected to disclose the complete extent of his wealth.

The Magnate's Sisters.

Very little is known of Mr. Gould's brother and sisters by the public. Mr. Morosini, who has been an intimate friend of the financier ever since he began to come into prominence Wost p reporter something about them this

"Mr. Gould," he said, "has three sisters day, living, beside his brother, Abram. "One of his sisters is Mrs. Hough, the wife the weather permitting. of a clergyman, who lives at Los Angeles,

Cal. The other two are Mrs. Northrup, who lives in Tuckgunk, Pa. They are both Or. Munn and Judge Dillon consulted with the family this morning and decided with the family the morning and decided that a guard shall be placed over the tomb of Directors of the Wabash.

Texas and Pacific and chairman of the Board alwaps provided liberally for their comfort.

Mrs. Northrup's eldest daughter teaches a it was also decided to have no pall-beafers of Directors of the Wabash.

Edwin Gobli is a Director in the Manhatschool-house which Mr. Gould built and gave school-house which Mr. Gould built and gave to her several years ago. " fie takes care of all the members of his has now filled for several years the modest to St. Heiena. position of supply agent of the Missouri Pasame swarthy complexion and black hair, but is above the medium height, heavily built the United States Express messenger who of being singular y kind-hearted and person-(Continued on Second Page.)

SPREE NOW SAFE IN HARBON

Steamship Lake Huron,

Towed Into Ouconstown by the Capt. Carey, from Montreat Nov. 19 for Liver-Judge Dillon said to-day that he had per- pool, passed Kinsale at 11.20 this morning, The spree signalled that her shall was

> The Spree is now safe in harbor at Queens town. Scores of anxious relatives, of the namen been placed in the hands of trus.

tees for the benefit of his cuttaren, and that they would all eventually come into equal shares of his weatth.

This, it said, is the method which he adopted in regard to his holdlings of Western Union, Missourt Pacific and Manhattan stocks and bonds, which comprise the bulk of his estate.

It is some serious than a mishan to the machinery could have occurred, the people were gravely apprehensive for the safety of the vessel until a cablegram from the agent at Bremen was received statfrom the agent at Bremen was received in tow o' a this morning to make inquiries for the be-

The cablegram was shown to all inquirers and it seemed to greatly relieve their together, under the management of his

The Spree sailed from Southampton at 5 r.

M. Nov. 23 and was due in this port Wednes-She had 350 saloon and cabin and 130 steerage passengers aboard.

Among the passengers are: A. Ballile Groman, Gen O. O. Howard, United States Army : Mrs. Adelheid Howard and child, Prof. Haupt of Baltimore, Md.; Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist; W. P. Moody, of Northfield, Mans.; Mrs. Marie Ambrosius, of Cleveland, O.: Mrs. G. S. Benedict and daugnter, of Philadelphia, Henry Blum, jr. ; Frederick Jacons, of Savan-City, Mo.; Louis Brauch and lamily Milwaukee, Wis.; J. Blumenthal, of El Paso, Tex.; C. P. Davidson, Mrs. Maria Davidson and children, of San Antonio, Tex.; nt of these companies, as well as informed tess cuelebrock, of Paris, and Rufus King

but the truth is that no one can tell with any ton contracts and calling for their return to who has a stand at Fourteenth street and degree of accuracy the amount of wealth of Room 133 at 20 Broadway. John B. Gibson, Eighth avenue, was charged in Jefferson

Tracy II. Harris, of the Committee on Tickets to the Yaic-Princeton game, said:

"Mr. Gibson made a contract with the managers of both teams for the privilege of publishing the official programme of the game. He paid for that privilege and he publishing the official programme of the game. He paid for that privilege and he published the programme, so that the deal in that respect is all completes and he can have he use now for the contract that gave him the programme rights. It is valueless.

"He probably means the contracts made between advertigers on the programme and the deal in the head with a club, inflicting injuries from the lead with a club, inflicting injuries from the lead with a club, inflicting injuries from the condition in Believed the injuries from which the stranger is tying in a dangerous condition in Believed the spilot the condition in Believed the spilot the programme of the condition in Believed the spilot the stranger is true and inflict the stranger is principles. tween advertisers on the programme and the

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

To Be Transmitted to the House and Two Versions of Gluseppe's Part in Senate on Tuesday.

office, revising the proof-slips of his annual husband, Gluseppe, was spoken to by Lucia, message to Congress.

The members of his Cabinet conferred with him during the day in regard to the topics considered in the message specially relating to their respective departments. The mes-sage and accompanying documents will be transmitted to both houses of Congress next

SCOWS TO GO TO SEA TO-DAY.

Hart's Island Crib Does Not Relieve Brennan's Department.

Street Cleaning Commissioner Brennan said this morning that the crib at Hart's away back in the "sixtles," told an EVENING Island, which the Commissioners of Charities and Correction informed him he would use for ind corrections of the control of th

> Inspecting Northern Pacific. TACOMA, WASH., Dec. 3.—A special committee of Northern Pacific stockholders, who are to make criticisms and sugcestions regarding the management, arrived last night. The party includes, Brayton Ives, Jay Cooke, St., W. E. Rogers, New York: Manager Medion and Chief Fraineer Kendrick. It is understood here that the wind oppose Henry Milard's management.

Claimed to Be Napoleon's Son. .Findlay, O., Dec. 2.-Paul Jordan died at family to the same way. I suppose he has the County Infirmary Scalerday. He always will, for it would be very unlike Mr. Gould not to do so."

Jay Gould's Brother Abram.

Jay Gould's Pother, Abram, who has now filled for several years the modest to Expt with Napoleon and that he was captured by the Turks and afterwards storn by the dews. Hyper in Jerusalem until has now filled for several years the modest Messenger Bagley Arraigned.

DAVENDORY, In., Dec. IL.-George L Bagley, appro-riated a package of money containing aded not guilty resterday in the District

Ga.; Henry Borgstede, of Kansas The Men Who Are Sure to Go Into His Cabinet Can Give Him a Big Reception EDITOR KILLED BY HIS WIFE.

Co. this morning no authentic information

DIED IN A RESTAURANT.

& McNell's.

taurant at 193 Washington street about 1.30

des. He had barely scated himself before his of the walters ran up to him he was dead.

consumption.

12 Washington place.

it was closed, and in endeavering

The man was about forty-five, had black

FIERCE FIGHT WITH A BURGLAR.

Ex-Convict Had a Bundle of Seal skins Worth $2,500 When Caught.

ched one of the alarm wires connecting

He was preparing to remove a bundle of scalagin garments worth $2,500.

SUICIDE OF SPRINTER ODELL

Former Champion of America Takes an Overdose of Morphine.

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 3 .- H. if. Odell, a

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

he was possessed at the time of his Probably it is not far from $100,- Tracy II. Harris, of the Committee on the head with a club, inflicting injuries from ing struck an unknown drunken man over

Justice Hyan refused the application, say ing he had received word that the stranger

WOMEN FOUGHT FOR HIM.

a Eattle Caused by Jealousy. Handsbine Lucia Picciono alleged in the Lee WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The President has spent his entire time to-day in his private Angela Lulinnita became jealous when be-AvenueCourt, Brooklyh, this morning that Mrs. and not only attacked her, pulling her hair, &c. but commanded Glüseppe to join in the assault, which she declared he did, though with ecknent reluctance.

Glüseppe declared that he had only tried to separate the women when they got to fighting about him. The case was adjourned.

CONFESSED TO FIVE MURDERS.

Victim of Conscience Surrenders to the Springfield (O.) Police.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 3.—Henry Lander-stager, a single male of forty years, went to police headquarters yesterday, declared that he was the murderer of five persons, said he conscience stricken, and surrendered.

of his victims, he said, were poisoned.

were: NGR O'Nell, of Mcveytown, Pa., Barbara Stillicrass, Manieton, Pa., it; S. Murray, of New Moureneid, O., in John Landerstager, his father, and Fox colored in 1870. rs. Fox cotored in 187d. The police think it a case of religious in-

TWO BURNED TO DEATH.

Sleepers in a Hay-Loft Meet Death by Fre. The large stable on the premises of the New Durham Hotel, near the roundhouse of the officer and Policeman Stanton, of the Mercer

N. J., was destroyed by fire last night.
Two labering men named Charles Moore and Frank Mack, of Union Township, who he is were steeping in the loft, were burned to it death. 5t Louis Has a $100.000 Blaze. Sr. Louis, Dec. 3.—Fire last night destroyed the door and sash factory of the Hotner Lothmer Company, a large two-story brick build-log. Water from the engines ruined the con-tents of a large warenouse adjoining. The loss is $100,000.

West Shore Raticond, in Hudson County,

Collapse of a Three-Story Block. LAPAYETTE, In L. Dec. 3.—The three-story brick business block occupied by Lehman's drug store, collapsed yesterday and is a total wreek. Carrie Bougherty, aged tweive, daughter of H. S. Jougherty, standing in front of the store was instantly silled. Don't Fear Bad Weather. You may be to court.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

You may be to court of the store was instantly silled.

overdose of morphine.

EDITOR KILLED BY HIS WIFE.

Branch Two, i.e., i.

Railroad in Jersey Ci y.

WAS IT J. PIERPONT MORGAN? An accident occurred early this morning on the trestle-work of the Pennsylvania Rail ich leads into the freight yards at the drai's $500.000 Benefactor. Cove in Jersey City, by which one man was instantly killed and another had both legs It was rumored on Wall street to-day that J. Pierpont Morgan is the hitherto unknown cut off. A freight train was standing on the trestle- street, was in the Jefferson Market Police donor of the $500,000 which was recently work between Grove and Henderson streets Court this morning charged with stealing given to Bishop Potter for the new Protestant waiting to be moved into the yard. Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine. At the banking house of Drexel, Morgan & was standing on one of the cars, and George Arnett, another brakeman, forty-two years old, of 4923 Farschall avenue, West Philadelphia, was atauang on Up of another car further down.

Drill engine 200, H. F. Smith engineer, was backed up to be attacked to the cars, and came against it with such force that the entire train was started.

Hoth men were knecked off the cars. Pearl could be gained, but one of the men in Mr. Morgan's office stated that it would not surprise him in the least to find that Mr. Morgan was the person who gave the check, but that it was daubtful if the public would ever learn from him whether it was so or not. Mr. Morgan's benevolence, he said, has for some time been in this line, and those who know him intimately believe the rumor above stated to be correct.

lioth men were knocked off the cars. Pearl truck upon his head and was instantly Ariett fell upon the trestle, and the wheels Ariett fell upon the trestle, and the wheels passing over both legs, severed them just below the knees. He was removed to St.
Francis Hospital, but it is thought that he carnot possibly survive.

Sudden Call of a Stranger in Smith KICKED A BABY CARRIAGE OVER. A stranger entered Smith & McNetl's res-this morning and sat down at one of the ta- Patrick Hughes Fined for Wantonly Injuring an Infant. head fell forward on his breast, and when one Pairtek Hughes, of 205 West Fifty-eighth street, was fined $5 for disorderly conduct in the Harlem Police Court this morning, as the hair streaked with gray, black mustache, and most important witness against him did not wore a brown suit and overcoat and Derny hat. The tody was removed to the Church street police station and the Coroner notiappear. Hughes deliberately kicked over a baby ned.

The dead man had the appearance of a workman, and is supposed to have died of carriage which a girl left standing outside a greecry at Nineticth street and Second ave nue. The infant was badly injured.

Hugines and several windows were broken the flying missiles.

FLOWER NOT INDICTED. George Morgan, allas "Chip," a noted ex-Reported Act of the Queens County convict, was held for trial in Jefferson

Grand Jury Is Denied. Market Court this morning energed with breaking into the store of Henry Meriaender, The report originating in Long Island City yesterday, that Gov. Flower and his sister. Early this morning the alarm connected Mrs. Schley, had been indicted for maintain with Meriaender's store rang and a special ing a nulsance because they and failed to fill io certain treets of marsh land, was denie te-lay by District-Attorney John Fieming, o Queens County. officer and the fresponded.

When they entered a desperate battle was fought. Morgan's traced face showed that he had to be roughly handled to be subdued. He secreted minself in the building before

GOLD FOR EUROPE.

La Gascogne Carried $1,600,000 in Yellow Metal To-Day.

The French steamship La Gascogne, which sailed for Havre this morning, carried $1,600,000 in gold to Europe. There were tures shipments, Larard Blind Beggar Sent Up. one time the champion sprinter of America. John Kerns, a blind beggar, was sent to committed suicide last night by taking an the island for six months in Jefferson Market. Court to-day and his fourteen - year - old brother, Edward, was turned over to the children's Society. They were arrested yes-terday for begging in the streets.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Retail Dealers to Advance Prices 25 Cents a Ton Dec. 12.

COAL GOING UP AGAIN,

Due to Restriction of November's Output by the Barons.

To the Poor Who Buy by the Bucket

It May Moan $12 a Ton.

As prophested in THE EVENING WORLD CO. eral weeks ago, the price of coal to the consumer is about to advance 25 cents a ton. The advance is to take effect on Dec. 12. That was decided upon at the meeting of the RetailCoal Exchange heid last night. The raise in the price is the result of the action of the coal barons, who a month ago decided to reairlot the November output to 3,500,000 ons, or 1,000,000 tuns less than the output for October. duction in the cutput was to "remedy the present over-production" and prevent a threatened glut in the market.

action was to put up the price of coal when the Winter was further advanced was not doubted for a moment by any one acquainted with the methods of the coal kings. At the time the decision to restrict the output was made, an Eventso World reporter trica in vain to get an expression of opinion from some of the big dealers, both wholesale and retall, as to wnether or not the result would be an advance in price to the consumer It was not until last night's meeting that the etaliers made known their intention to make

STOLE ROBES OFF A HANSOM.

Bleen in Only One Night. August Miller, a tow-headed boy of fifteen years, who lives at 218 West Thirty-sixth two inp-robes from a hansom on Fourth Joseph Pearl, a brakeman, aged fifty-two sireet early this morning. Fears, of 238 Railroad arence, Jersey City.

After much weeping August managed to was standing on one of the cars, and George explain to Justice Ryan that he had been after the cars and provided by the cars and the cars are the cars and the cars are the cars and the cars are th

OCEAN VOYAGERS.

Distinguished Passengers on Transatlantic Lines To-Day. Right Rev. P. L. Chapelle, Col. Theodore A. Dodge, U. S. A.: Rev. P. Dommeau, Mrs. Ira Hodges, Mrs. G. B. McCiellan, Miss McClellan and Major George M. Wheeler were passengers on La Gascogne for Havre to-day. On the Umbria for Liverpool were Baraness William de Longford, Hon. Charles H. de Long-

ford, D. P. Thompson, United States Minister to Turkey; Right Hon. W. Lidderdale, Walton E. Howard, United States Consul at Cardiff, Miss Filizabeth Jessup, Count Rosen, Senator D. M. Sabin and John G. Hathaway. CAPTAIN ACCUSED OF MURDER.

Said to Have Thrown a Boy Overboard and Then Shot Him. ET ASSOCIATED PRESS. 1
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 3.—Capt. John Smith,

who returned last night from a cruise in the chooner Lou along the Mexican coast, was arrested on a charge of murder. Christopher Silbery, aged fifteen, swears that he witnessed an altercation between Smith and George B. Neale, a sixteen-year old boy, on the night of Nov. 25, and that Smith threw Neale overboard and shot him while he was struggling in the water.

WHIRLED AROUND A SHAFT. Mechanic Maneled to Pieces at the

Singer Factory in New Jersey. FLIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 3. - As Morris Baer, a mechanic in the rumbling department of the Singer Sewing Machine Factory at this place, was adjusting a belt to-day a pulley caught in his clothing.

He was whirled around and around the Freres sent $500,000. Ladenburg, Thalman shaft. His body was mangled to pieces. He died to stantly. Pool to Sell Hocking Valley Coal.

COLUMBUS, Q., Dec. 3.—The operators of the Bocking Valley have decided to organize a company to buy and sell the entire output of the valley. The object is to reduce the cost of handling the coal and meeting sompe-tition in the market.

The musical numbers will comprise an the memory of the dead financier by Dr. Opening anthem; Cardinal Newman's hymn. Green and several other members of the Com-There will be no formal addresses by the Directors of the Manhattan Elevated placed in the casket, which will rest on pedestals in the parlor on the ground floor the Missouri Pacific Railway. After the funeral services the members of way, the Missouri Pacific, the Texas Pacific the family will take their last look at the factures of the dead fluancier.